

Meet Our Team | The Crab Pad Crew 🦀 ✨

Behind every messy seafood feast at The Crab Pad is a crew that brings the flavor, fun, and hustle every single day. We're more than just a restaurant — we're a family, and here's the team that makes it all happen:

Rocio – Head Chef

Rocio holds it down in the kitchen day in and day out. From perfectly seasoning our Viet Cajun boils to making sure every bag is dripping in buttery, garlicky goodness, she's the mastermind behind the bold flavors you crave.

Jackie – Lead Manager

When Neyra isn't around, Jackie steps up and helps operate the business like a pro. From managing the floor to keeping our guests happy, Jackie keeps The Crab Pad running smoothly no matter how busy it gets.

Neyra Rivera – General Manager & Partner

The heart and soul of The Crab Pad, Neyra has been with us since day one and now runs the show as General Manager and Partner. Her passion, leadership, and dedication are a huge part of why The Crab Pad experience is unlike anywhere else in Chicago.

Together, this dream team keeps our Logan Square seafood spot thriving, making sure every guest leaves full, happy, and already planning their next visit.

Come meet the crew, crack some crab, and see why everyone's saying:
